

SUMMARY OF PROPERTY OWNED

Listed below are common types of property that people own. Please review the list carefully. Make notes if you own any property of that type. Be prepared to discuss the property at your initial interview with the attorney. You will be asked to describe what you own. You will also be asked to give an estimate of its value. Exact numbers are not required at the initial interview, but be aware that any recommendations made at the initial interview can be no more reliable than the value estimates.
